Physical Description:

This collection of papers, books, and photographs of the Burbank family of Limerick and Saco dates from 1808 to ca. 1937. It deals mostly with Horace H. Burbank and his family. Burbank was born in Limerick, Maine, in 1837 and died in Saco in 1905. He served in the 27th and 32nd Maine Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War. After the war, he practiced law in Limerick and Saco. He held numerous positions in the County and State including Register of Probate and Representative to the State Legislature. For a more detailed account of his life, see the testimonial published at his death in 1905 by the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, Box 1 Folder 7.

NOTE: Various items from the home of Jane Lord Burbank, daughter of Horace, are included in the Museum's collection.

Most of the collection does not have an acquisition number.

The collection is stored in two full boxes, with oversize and framed documents and photographs stored in appropriate and indicated places.
