Physical Description:

This collection of diaries, account books, almanacs, business papers (including receipted bills from any local businesses), and personal papers, belonged to various members of the Wentworth family of Kennebunk Beach, particularly Owen and Freeman A. Wentworth. The collection encompasses the dates 1836 – 1940.

For an overview of this family, see the reference resource listed at the back of this inventory.

The collection is housed in two full boxes and one half box. The diaries, account books, almanacs, etc. are all part of acquisition #69.193. The loose papers, most of which concern Freeman A. Wentworth, were given separately by an unknown donor and were not given an acquisition number.

NOTE: Four photographs of Wentworth family members, which are a part of this collection, have been moved to the photograph file. Xerox copies can be found in Box 1, Folder 13.
