Physical Description:

This collection was donated to the Brick Store Museum in 2002 by Mrs. Louise Hurd, a direct descendant of both Lord and Finlayson families.

This collection includes the important William Lord House model which was created by historian William E. Barry circa 1890.

Also included in this collection are letters and deeds pertaining to the Lord Family. Most interesting is a copy of a letter written by Edward E. Bourne about the death of his daughter Lizzie who died while climbing Mt. Washington in 1855. Presumably this letter is in this collection because Miss Bourne was engaged to Robert Lord at the time of her death.

Other documents in this collection relate to the sailing Mt. Washington.

Box and Folder Breakdown:

Box 1: Ledger of William Lord during his years 1837 – 1855. Includes references to sea voyages, real estate transactions, crop information. Hardbound. 7.75 x 6 inches. Handwritten.

Folder 1: Letters to and from Robert Lord and his family during the 1850s while Robert was on voyage to the California gold mines. Letter from Edward E. Bourne about his daughter's death dated 1855. Newspaper articles relating to the incident of Lizzie Bourne's death including a poem entitled "The Mountain Death". Also a spiritual reading supposed to have come from Lizzie Bourne after death. Eleven letters in all.

Folder 2: Letters to and from William Lord, one as early as 1813. Also one 1950 Christmas card drawn by Edith Barry. One typed letter of reference for an actor named Robert
