Physical Description:

This collection was given to the Brick Store Museum by Valerie Hickey, niece of Fred Rouleau of Kennebunk. Both Miss Hickey and Rouleau were born and lived all their lives in Kennebunk. The photographs which are a part of this collection were annotated by Rouleau before his death with the names of local people as he remembered them.

The Rouleau certificates speak for themselves.

The Kennebunk Business Girls' Club playbills and booklets were owned by Miss Hickey, who as a girl performed in the plays.

Folder Breakdown:

- Folder 1: Seven programs for plays performed by the Kennebunk Business Girls' Club, 1924 – 1926.
- Folder 2: Play booklet and program for “Cranberry Corners,” a play performed by the Business Girls' Club and the American Legion at the Kennebunk Town Hall, May 10, 1923.
- Folder 3: Two certificates awarded to Fred Rouleau for service to government organizations during World War II.

The collection also includes a large number of photographs, many of people, which are in the photo files by number and by the names of the subjects. All bear the number 87.69.5. plus consecutive numbers.
