

Inventory of the Wentworth Hotel (Kennebunk Beach) Collection (Miscellaneous Collection #39)

The Brick Store Museum
Kennebunk, Maine

Compiled by Joyce Butler, Manuscript Curator
September 15, 1987

Table of Contents:
Physical Description
Folder Breakdown

Physical Description:

This collection of photographs, account books, and ephemera was generated by the Wentworth Hotel and its owners, members of the Wentworth family, and pertains to both. The dates encompassed are from the 1890s to the late 1920s. See the folder listing for a more detailed description. The largest part of the collection is photographs of the hotel, its employees, the Kennebunk Beach area, and miscellaneous other photographs. These are in the photograph file, number 87.2511-20.

Folder Breakdown:

- Folder 1: The will of Elvira P. Wentworth of Kennebunk and miscellaneous documents pertaining to her estate, 1925.
- Folder 2: Probate papers pertaining to the estate of Elvira P. Wentworth, 1925.
- Folder 3: Miscellaneous papers pertaining to the Webhannet Golf Club in the 1930s. Also, time schedules for the Boston and Maine Transportation Company motor coach service, 1931, and Stevens' Motor Coach, Kennebunk to Kennebunkport, 1931.
- Folder 4: Miscellaneous documents removed from account book 87.25.23.

The collection also includes:

- A small notebook with no covers with accounts for produce delivered to various people and labor performed. 87.25.21
- A teacher's question book, fragment. 87.25.22
- An account book, 1901 – 1926, which includes listings of expenses for various Wentworth estates. 87.25.23

#