Physical Description:

This small collection is made up of seventeen letters and receipts to and from Charles A. Nye of Saco, and his brother, D. Cutts Nye of Lexington, Massachusetts, written in 1858-59.

Also included are assorted newspaper clippings about agricultural technology and planting methods, which have been pasted on letter paper that in some cases seems to have been used for penmanship practice.

The collection is in one folder. It was acquisition #1900-1.
