

Inventory of the Frank Littlefield Collection
(Miscellaneous Collection #43)

The Brick Store Museum
Kennebunk, Maine

Compiled by Joyce Butler, Manuscript Curator
April 24, 1989

Table of Contents:
Physical Description
Folder Breakdown

Physical Description:

This small collection of materials pertaining to Kennebunk was found in the former Frank Littlefield house in Kennebunk by the donor, Michael A. Mathieson, 30 York Street, Kennebunk.

Folder Breakdown:

- Folder 1: Day Book of Nancy Mace, Wells, Maine, c. 1826
Day Book of Reuben Mace, Shapleigh, Maine, c. 1818 – 1822
- Folder 2: Kennebunk Directory, 1936
Kennebunk Directory, 1939 – 1940
Kennebunk, Maine. Resources, Development and Progress. A Series of Comprehensive Sketches (Boston: Historical Publishing Company, 1901. Two Copies.
- Folder 3: Centennial Observance, Kennebunk Baptist Church, 1934. Program of events June 27 – July 1, 1934.
Centennial Observance, Kennebunk Baptist Church, 1934 Booklet. (Pages missing, begins with page 5)
Official Program of the Centennial Celebration of the Incorporation of the Town of Kennebunk, Maine on August 1 and 2, 1920.
Program of the Celebration of the Two Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary of the Town of Wells, Maine, August 26, 1903.

Folder 4: Photos and documentation for prize winning window, Frank Taylor Littlefield's store window, Kennebunk, entered in Waterman's ideal Fountain Pen contest, 1915.

Collection also includes:

Kennebunk, Maine, autograph album, c. 1876 – Pamphlet Box, Album Cupboard

Eight postcards (#s 89.6.2.1-8) – Postcard file by #

Collection photographs (#89.6.3.1-42) – Photo file by #

Collection of Blue and White magazines, published by Kennebunk High School, c. 1910 – 1911 – Pamphlet Box #37

Collection of snapshots of Littlefield family members – People File

Glass negative of Theodore Well's mill, Wells Branch, c. 1900 – with glass negatives, metal cupboard

One copy Arundel Review, 2/4/1948 – Newspaper Box 9, Folder 7

Recommendations of the Budget Committee, Town of Wells, Maine. Annual Town meeting, March 10, 1941 – with Wells town reports.

The collection bears accession numbers 89.6.3-12

#