

Inventory of the Bill Lupien Collection (Miscellaneous Collection #51)

The Brick Store Museum
Kennebunk, Maine

Table of Contents:
Physical Description
Folder Breakdown

Physical Description:

This collection is archival materials belonging to Bill Lupien of 266 Ocean Avenue, New London, Connecticut. Acq. 1998.7.1-.27

Folder Breakdown:

- Folder 1: Book and production schedule owned by Harry P. Manseau of Kennebunk of programs presented at Kennebunk Town hall on March 11, 1926, including:
- A minstrel show by Ivy Temple, Knights of Pythias
 - “What’ll We Do”, presented by the Kennebunk Business Girl’s Club, April 22, 1926
 - Second Annual Minstrel Show and Dance by Ivy Temple, Pythian Sister, March 22, 1927, “H.M.S. Pinafore,” no date

Program from “The Chimes of Normandy” at Kennebunk Town Hall, May 13, 1936

Program from a one-act play contest between Kennebunk, Windham, Westbrook and South Portland, no date

- Folder 2: Typescript of oral history tape with Olga and Bill Lupien, conducted by Richard Eishenhour, on September 15, 1997. See box of oral histories for tape.

These materials were catalogued on May 30, 2000. A listing of the objects was placed on the back of the donor form when the items were accepted in April 1997. At this time, items 1998.7.2-.5, photographs of stage productions at Kennebunk Town hall, were not located. Items .12-.20, postcards of Kennebunk, were also not located. See donor file for additional information.

For additional photographs and negatives of the Brick Store Museum building on the corner of Dane and Main Street (Savary) were also with this collection. They have been accessioned with numbers 1998.7.24-.27, and placed with photographs. See donor file for additional information.

#