

Inventory of the Barque Horace (1838) Collection
(Miscellaneous Collection #5)

The Brick Store Museum
Kennebunk, Maine

Compiled by Joyce Butler, Manuscript Curator
January 25, 1982

Table of Contents:
Physical Description
Reference Sources

Physical Description:

Testimony of five crew members of the Barque Horace concerning its wreck on Kennebunk's Boothby's Beach on May 5, 1838, while her crew was in a state of mutiny, as follows:

1. George F. Striblehill, Louisville, Kentucky; taken at Portland, Maine, July 6, 1838 (16 pages)
2. Joseph W. Hadwin, Tiverton, Rhode Island; taken at Kennebunkport, June 18, 1838 (4 pages)
3. Ephraim Perkins, Kennebunkport, Maine; taken at Kennebunkport, December 14, 1838 (15 pages)
4. Oliver Walker, Kennebunkport, Maine; taken at Kennebunkport, December 13, 1838 (10 pages)
5. Joseph Gould, Kennebunkport, Maine; taken by Edward P. Bourne, Counsel for the Plaintiffs, no date (18 pages)

Reference Sources

For a brief history of the Horace, see Daniel Remich's History of Kennebunk, pages 392-393.

The collection is in one folder.

#