

Brick Store Museum Holiday Tea on Summer Street
Sunday, December 13, 2009 – Open House from 3 to 5 p.m.

Continue a holiday tradition...

Grandparents, parents, and children are invited for a rare peek inside a private Summer Street home—the historic 1842 Nathaniel Lord Thompson House—for our sixth annual Holiday Tea. Enjoy hot tea, assorted tea sandwiches and delectable sweets presented by Kitchen Chicks Catering while learning a bit about tea, etiquette customs, and the history of this elegant Greek temple-style home. This program is made possible through the generosity of H. M. Payson & Co. and the Virginia Hodgkins Somers Foundation.

Advance reservations are required by December 5th

Museum members: $15/adult
Non-members: $20/adult
Children ages 14 and under: $7.50/child
Children ages 4 and under are admitted free

Your reservation will be confirmed with a mailed card that will also provide directions and the exact location and house number for the Holiday Tea. All proceeds directly benefit the Museum's programs and exhibitions.
