Physical Description:

This collection is made up of handwritten sermons of the Reverend John Fairfield of Pepperrelborough (Saco) who was ordained there on October 27, 1762. He was the grandfather of Mrs. William Lord of Kennebunk. The collection is divided into two folders as follows:

Folder 1:  Eight sermons. Acquisition #798

Folder 2:  Six sermons. Two of these are written in the very large hand the Reverend Fairfield used when his eye sight failed him. Included with these is a photographic reproduction of the first page of one of the sermons and a newspaper clipping about the Rev. Fairfield’s ordination in 1762.
